Keep practising! If you get an answer incorrect, make sure you have a good look at the correct answer. Try writing those trickier ones down to learn separately. Remember, just 15 minutes a day will really help your fluency.

Remember to read at home regularly over the holiday (at least 10 minutes a day) and hand in reading diaries on Mondays to be checked- you could get a "Read to Succeed" ticket and win a book!

You could try these activities too:

1) Next week you will be writing your own myths. You will be including your own mythical beasts. Try to design your own creature or draw an existing one. Could it be half man, half lizard? How many heads will it have? How big will it be? Will it have any special powers? What will you call it? You can then use the ideas you have collected in your writing next week.

2) As you may know, next week we will be celebrating the Queen's Platinum Jubilee.

Everyone has been royally invited to send in portraits of the Queen! You may also wish to find out some facts about her. Ask adults to send in their drawings or paintings too!
